

106TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. R. 1564

To require the Secretary of the Interior to conduct a study regarding Fort King, Florida.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

APRIL 26, 1999

Mr. STEARNS introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Resources

A BILL

To require the Secretary of the Interior to conduct a study regarding Fort King, Florida.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. CONGRESSIONAL FINDINGS.

4 The Congress finds that—

5 (1) the Second Seminole War, 1835–1842, is 6 an important period of conflict in the history of the 7 Nation and lasted longer than any other armed con-
8 flict in which the Nation participated, except the 9 Vietnam War;

1 (2) Fort King, in central Florida, played an im-
2 portant historic role in the Second Seminole War as 3 the site of the outbreak of hostilities between the 4 United States Government and the Seminole Indians
5 of Florida, who were led by Seminole Indian Chief
6 Osceola;

7 (3) Fort King represents a unique site for ex-
8 ploration and interpretation of the attack that ig-
9 nited the Second Seminole War on December 28,
10 1835; and

11 (4) Fort King and the surrounding area contain 12 materials and artifacts used in the attack and in the 13 life of the Seminole Indians.

14 SEC. 2. REQUIREMENT OF STUDY.

15 The Secretary of the Interior (hereinafter in this Act 16 referred to as the “Secretary”) shall conduct a study to 17 identify potential means to preserve, develop, and inter-
18 pret Fort King, in central Florida, and the surrounding 19 area. As part of the study, the Secretary shall propose
20 alternatives for cooperation in the preservation and inter-
21 pretation of Fort King and shall provide recommendations
22 with respect to the suitability and feasibility of estab-
23 lishing Fort King as a unit of the National Park System.

1 SEC. 3. FINDINGS INCLUDED IN STUDY.

2 The study required by section 2 shall contain, but
3 need not be limited to, findings with respect to—

4 (1) the role played by Fort King in the Second
5 Seminole War;

6 (2) identification of the historical, cultural, and 7 archaeological material found in Fort King and the 8 surrounding area relating to life at the time of and 9 preceding the Second Seminole War;

10 (3) the types of Federal, State, and local pro-
11 grams that are available to preserve and develop
12 Fort King and the surrounding area and to make
13 the fort and the surrounding area accessible for pub-
14 lic use and enjoyment; and

15 (4) the potential use of, and coordination with,
16 Federal, State, and local programs to manage, in 17 the public interest, the historical and cultural re-
18 sources found at and around Fort King.

19 SEC. 4. CONGRESSIONAL REVIEW.

20 The Secretary shall submit a report detailing the re-
21 sults of the study required by section 2 to the committees
22 of jurisdiction of the House of Representatives and the 23 Senate not later than 12 months after the date of the en-
24 actment of this Act.
